The long comparison

The source overlap 3206–2856–2506 BC appears at 3106–2756–2406 after translation. Its two halves still measure 350 years each.

On the same axis, 2756 BC bisects both Creation to Conquest (1,350 + 1,350) and Noah’s birth to the Flood (300 + 300).

Horizontal spans give elapsed time along each modeled curve. At π ≈ 22/7, the diameters are 700 years for the generations and 1,050 for Noah.

Jared’s 3606 opening belongs to the 27-century table. Methuselah’s 3206 close uses the 26-century table with second Cainan omitted.
