One horizontal axis for every diameter

The centers of all circles and semicircles lie on the line through the two Shelah points at −2,750 and +2,750.

At each Shelah date

The blue and purple circles touch on the horizontal axis.

The earlier arc pairs cross at two heights

Both fall on the same vertical date line, above the axis on the left and below it on the right.